

EVIDENCE REQUIRED FOR FREE MEDIATION

For those who are in receipt of their state pension

Please provide the documents below, before your meeting via email to laa@allisonmediation.co.uk

Guaranteed state pension credit is treated as a passported state benefit.

- A current letter (dated within the last six months) advising you of your entitlement to this benefit.

Photos of the above emailed to the above email address is sufficient.

Bank statements

In addition, your bank statement for you (and any partner, if you are living together) for any accounts in which you receive income paid into.

[This is not an exclusive list but to give you an idea the Legal Aid Agency treat wages, rental income, monies loaned from family, tax credits, child maintenance, child benefit, lottery / betting wins, bonuses, redundancy payments and sale of items as income if you use that money to help you meet your expenditure that month].

You [and any partner]

- Bank statements or from online accounts pdf or screen shots or photo's of
  - i.) Four week period before your meeting [so if your meeting is the 01.10.2020 the relevant period is 01.09.2020 to 01.10.2020]
  - ii.) If you emailing us photos of bank statements we understand you may only have part of this period. You could try to log onto online accounts to create a pdf of transactions for the relevant period or attend at your bank to ask for a 'banker's roll' for the full period.
